

W. Josias OUEDRAOGO

Ph.D candidate at the Bordeaux School of Economics (BSE)
6 Avenue Leon Duguit, 33608 Pessac
wendpogbnooma.ouedraogo@u-bordeaux.fr

CURRENT POSITION

University of Bordeaux Since October 2022

PhD Candidate in Development Economics

Thesis topic : Accumulation process and security in the African informal sector.

Thesis Directors : Eric ROUGIER and François COMBARNOUS

EDUCATION

University of Bordeaux 2021 - 2022

Master in economics and statistics, Specialization in development economics and demography

Thomas SANKARA University (Burkina Faso) 2019 - 2021

Master in macroeconomics and development management

Thomas SANKARA University (Burkina Faso) 2015 - 2019

Bachelor's degree in Economics and management sciences

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Bordeaux 2023 - 2024

Research and teaching assistant : microeconomics, statistics, Financial forecast

University of Bordeaux 2022 - 2023

Research and teaching assistant : Statistics, Financial forecast

WORK EXPERIENCE

CROUS of Bordeaux 2022 - 2023

Referring Student : University Residence of Campus Pessac

Thomas SANKARA University (Burkina Faso) 2021

Research assistant : Center for Economic and Social Studies, Documentation and Research

SCIENTIFIC ACTIVITIES

Doctoral day (EDEHN) November 2023

10th doctoral day on public policy analysis in Le Havre

University of Bordeaux July 2023

Bordeaux summer school : Africa's Populations by 2050, Challenges and potentials

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

- Structural change and wage inequality in the OECD : A sectoral analysis, With Eric ROUGIER (BSE)
- Effects of mobile money use on capital accumulation in informal businesses in Dakar, With Jean Philippe BERROU (LAM)

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

Data Analysis Stata, R,

Data collection SurveyCTO

Languages French (Fluent), English (working knowledge)
