

SÉBASTIEN CARRÈRE

28/03/2024

BSE UMR CNRS 6060, Université de Bordeaux, Avenue Léon Duguit, 33608 PESSAC CEDEX
sebastien.carrere@u-bordeaux.fr

PhD Candidate in Development Economics

CURRENT POSITION

PhD Candidate in Applied Economics, University of Bordeaux Sept. 2019 - Present
BSE (UMR CNRS 6060)
-Thesis title: Inequalities, Redistributive Policies and Political Economy in Latin America
-Research interests: development economics, social stratification, redistributive policies, poverty dynamics in Latin America

EDUCATION

Master in Development Economics, University of Bordeaux Passed in 2019
-Theories in Development Economics
-Quantitative techniques in econometrics, microeconometrics, statistics and demography applied to developing countries

Bachelor in Economics, University of Tours Passed in 2017
-Economics studies focused on microeconomics, macroeconomics, statistics and economics history

PAPERS AND PROJECTS

Working paper — Argentina 2024
-How effective are cash transfer programs in mitigating income instability: evidence from the AUH in Argentina

Research document — Argentina 2022
-The Middle class in Argentina: Dynamics, characteristics and implications for public policies, with M.Clément (BSE), F.Combarrous (BSE), G.Kessler (CONICET), E.Rougier (BSE) and A.Wilkis (CONICET), AFD Research Paper Series 241

Master Thesis — Brazil 2019
-Quality of Municipal Management and Local Development: A Brazilian Case Study
-Literature review and econometrical analysis

WORK EXPERIENCE

Research assistant, University of Bordeaux (BSE) Sept. 2023 – Present
-Projet SPES: Sustainability Performances, Evidence and Scenarios.

Instructor, University of Bordeaux Sept. 2019 – 2023
-Teach macroeconomics and statistics for undergraduate students in economics studies.

TECHNICAL STRENGTHS

Computer Skills & Software Languages Stata, Office, L^AT_EX, R-Studio, Python
French (Mother tongue), English (Advanced)
Spanish (Intermediate)