

6th EMME Workshop

Emerging Market Macroeconomics

Bordeaux, March 14th, 2025 Room : Manon Cormier

Location: Bordeaux School of Economics, 16 avenue Léon Duguit, Pessac, France.

PROGRAMME

8.45. Welcome

9.00-9.45. Climate change and fiscal crisis in agricultural commodity dependent countries.
Florian Morvillier and Erica Perego (CEPII)

9.45-10.30. How climate physical risks affect banking stability? The Latin American experience with strong ENSO events.

Olivier Damette, Clément Mathonnat and Julien Thavard (BETA, University of Lorraine)

10.30-11.00. Break

11.00-12.15. Keynote Lecture by Ulrich VOLZ (SOAS, University of London)
Reversing the Vicious Circle of Debt, Underdevelopment, and Environmental Change

12.30-13.45. Lunch break. Room Salle des séminaires H2-116

13.45-14.45. The physical vulnerability to climate change index: presentation and uses.
Michaël Goujon (CERDI, University of Clermont Auvergne)

14.45-15.45. China and its role in the global energy transition.
Camélia Turcu (LEO, University of Orléans)

15.45-16.00. Final break

For more information, please visit our website

Contact : emme@univ-poitiers.fr

Supported by INFER, International Network For Economic Research

